He was given to Judy Hower-ton, a first whip for Bedford County Hunt for many years. No Clouds was argu-ably the best whip's horse BCH had ever known, and came to symbolize the "No Clouds Perpetual Trophy," awarded to the horse that best represents the spirit of a true field hunter.

In Memory

Donna Johnson

Donna was a member of Bedford County Hunt for longer than I can remember. She managed the horse shows for a few years before passing them on to me. If you have shown at any of our BCH shows in the past 10 years, then you have seen Donna working busily at the secretary stand. Not only did she contribute her expertise to the horse show, she was a devoted whipper-in out in the hunt field helping to keep all of those ornery hounds in line. Hunting has not been the same without her, and she is missed very much.
